Public Transport Directions to the Nowgen Centre

A new bus service is now operating between Manchester Piccadilly train station and the Nowgen Centre. The service starts outside Piccadilly train station on Fairfield Street and stops on Grafton Street outside the Nowgen Centre. This 147 service runs every 10 minutes during peak times and every 15 minutes at other times, Monday to Friday. It costs 80p for a single journey and £1.50 for unlimited travel on that route for a day.

Alternatively, the following buses travel from Piccadilly Gardens to the Hospital: 11, 14, 15, 16, 18, 41, 42, 43, 46, 48, 142, 143 and 157. If you arrive at Victoria train station, catch a tram (cost included in the train ticket) to Piccadilly train station or Piccadilly Gardens and then catch one of the buses listed above. These buses can also be caught outside Oxford Road train station. Taxis are also available at the train stations.
