

Day and night wetting Study Day (Half day course)

Wednesday 20th May

Time: 9am – 1 pm

Venue: Virtual - TEAMS

Program:

0900-0930	Welcome / Overview of Bladder Function and ICCS terminology – Anju Goyal
0930-1000	Evaluation - Bladder Diary/ Uroflow/Urotherapy - – Sarah Colwill
1000-1030	Medications for Overactive bladder - Anti-cholinergics / Mirabegron – Hayley Wynne
1030-1100	Case studies
1100-1130	Coffee
1130-1150	Further pathway for resistant OAB - Treatment strategies - Botox
1150-1230	Bedwetting introduction and initial management – Hayley Wynne
1230-1300	Resistant Bed wetting – further strategies

Course Directors:

Ms Anju Goyal, Sarah Colwill CNS, Hayley Wynne CNS,

Department of Paediatric Urology, Royal Manchester Children's Hospital

Registration fee: £55 - link below for registration

Kidneys for Life

Registered Charity Number 505256

Renal Research Labs, Manchester Royal Infirmary

Oxford Road, Manchester, M13 9WL

Tel: 0161 276 6671

Objectives:

- To enhance understanding of bladder function and its disorders leading to day-time wetting
- To gain insight into tools to evaluate day wetting and declutter the role of investigations
- To discuss the important role of timed escalation in the care pathway
- To share knowledge on newer developments in this field
- Share resources – pathways/Bladder diary/Guidelines

Target Audience:

All those who look after patients with wetting:

Paediatricians / Continence nurses / Paediatric Urologists / Paediatric Surgeons / Paediatric Nephrologists / Urology specialist nurses

Please note that Kidneys for Life is solely responsible for the planning, delivery, and management of this course. Our organisation facilitates bookings only and the charity is not responsible for the course content, materials, or any information presented during the session.

Conference terms and conditions

Kidneys for Life

Registered Charity Number 505256

Renal Research Labs, Manchester Royal Infirmary

Oxford Road, Manchester, M13 9WL

Tel: 0161 276 6671